I found this Char Koay Kak (炒粉) at Bringchang Pasar Malam (night market), Cameron Highland. It is a typical Char Koay Kak, which is frying together with bean sprouts (炒豆), chives (炒葱) and egg.

Char Koay Kak is a popular street food in Cameron Highland. It is a mixture of yellow, fried ingredients and green herbs. The stall is set up under a red umbrella. In the background, a silver van is parked, and several people, including children, are visible.
