The word "Melt in mouth" attracted my attention when I saw some bloggers share their recipe with above title. I have copy down the recipe and bake it at home. It is a good recipe where I can bake again on coming Chinese New Year.

Recipe here...

Ingredients:

125g butter
40g icing sugar (sifted)
125g potato starch
80g plain flour (or superfine flour)

Method:

1. Beat butter and icing sugar until fluffy and light colour.
2. Sift in potato starch and plain flour, mix to form a soft dough.
3. Roll to small balls, press lightly with fork. After each press, dip fork in water.
4. Bake at 170C for 15mins.
